Contents

Beginnings: The National Developmental Debate Conference
Allan D. Louden, conference director, Wake Forest University

Framing Policy Debate in the 21st Century
Keynote Address: A New Golden Age—Intercollegiate Debate in the Twenty-first Century
William Keith, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee

A Rationale for Intercollegiate Debate in the Twenty-first Century
Timothy O’Donnell, University of Mary Washington

Alumni Testimonials

Section I: Professional Development, Research, and Advancement
Status of Standards for Tenure and Promotion in Debate
Robin Rowland, chair, University of Kansas; and R. Jarrod Atchison, Trinity University, Texas

Pathways to Innovation in Debate Scholarship
Gordon R. Mitchell, chair, University of Pittsburgh

Development and Advancement in the Coaching Profession: A Report on Professional Debate Coaching Positions and Benchmarks for the Profession
David Hingstman, chair, University of Iowa; and Taylor Hahn, Clarion University

Section II: Innovation and Best Practices
Innovation and Debate: Where Do We Go from Here?
Karla Leeper, chair, Baylor University

Best Tournament Practices: Recommendations and Data
Rich Edwards, chair, Baylor University; and Jon Bruschke, California State University–Fullerton

Section III: Community and Organization Building
Consolidating Debate Governance: Working Group Recommendations
Gordon Stables, chair, University of Southern California

Constructing Alumni Networks
Scott Segal, chair, Bracewell & Giuliani LLP, Washington, DC; and Michael Hester, University of West Georgia
Section IV: Agenda for Policy Debate in the 21st Century

Controversies in Debate Pedagogy: Working Paper
Edward M. Panetta, chair, University of Georgia; and William Mosley-Jensen, University of Georgia

Alternative Debate Models: Working Group Summary
Allan D. Louden, chair, Wake Forest University; and Theodore Albinia, University of Southern California

Civic Engagement Through Policy Debate: Possibilities for Transformation
Anjali Vats, Washington Debate Coalition, Seattle, and University of Puget Sound

Section V: Beyond Tournaments—Openings for Debate Programs

Toward an Understanding of the Landscape of Debate Expansion in Urban Areas and Opportunities for the College Community
Will Baker, American Forensics Association, vice president for high-school affairs

Rethinking Debate Education: The Impact of Community Programs and Engaged Scholarship on Debate at Emory University
Melissa Maxcy Wade, Emory University

Reaching the Dropout Population: Seeking Government Grants
Carol Winkler, Georgia State University

The Challenge to Reestablish Intercollegiate Debate at Our Nation’s Historically Black Colleges and Universities
John W. Davis II, Debate Solutions, LLC

Broadening the Base of Investment in Challenging Economic Times: Communicating the Case for Evidence-Based, Cost-Effective Debate Interventions
Scott Deatherage, executive director, and Eric Tucker, chief academic officer and deputy director, National Association for Urban Debate Leagues

Section VI: Pedagogical Innovations

The Allred Initiative and Debate Across the Curriculum: Reinventing the Tradition of Debate at North Carolina
Christian O. Lundberg, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill
Co-opetition: A Strategic Approach to Debate Organization Politics and a Proposal for Skills-based Debate Instruction 322
Will Baker, American Forensics Association, vice president for high-school affairs

Educational Convergences: The Potential Relationships Between Parliamentary and Policy Debate Communities 330
Derek T. Buescher, University of Puget Sound

Section VII: International Debate Opportunities 339
New Models for Debating: The USA Learns from the World 341
Alfred C. Snider, University of Vermont

Prospering in a World of World Debate 349
Noel Selegzi, Open Society Institute

The Growth of Asian Debate: Implications for America 357
Jason Jarvis, Georgia State University

Appendixes 361
I: Debate in Research, Practice, and History: A Selected Annotated Bibliography 363
Sarah Spring, University of Iowa; Joseph Packer, University of Pittsburgh; and Timothy O’Donnell, University of Mary Washington

II: Guide to Debate Organizations on the Web 376
Anjali Vats, Washington Debate Coalition, Seattle and University of Puget Sound