Sydney Wins Colgate IV 2010

The team of Tim Mooney and Bronwyn Cowell won the Colgate International IV tournament held at Colgate University in Hamilton, New York. Cornell finished second, with Rhodes University and Hobart William Smith Colleges as finalists. The decision was unanimous for Sydney and 4-1 for Cornell.

The motion was: This House would legalize duels to the death.

Semifinalist teams who did not advance were Vermont LG and Vermont HD in one room and Laverne College and Kings College in the other.

The top ten speakers were (sorry about some last names being left out but I do not have a copy of the results)

1. Mooney, Sydney
2. Cowell, Sydney
3. Clive, Rhodes
4. Bores, Cornell
5. Ingrid, Rhodes
6. Loeb, Vermont
7. Gross, Vermont
8. Klinger, HWS
9. Hernandez, HWS
10. Briana, Laverne
Breaking judges were:
Martin, West, Champlain, Dodge, Nelson, Carter, Aftab, Snider, Logan, Barnes

Motions:
1 give parents access to their children's social networking sites
2 allow those with life sentences to choose the death penalty.
3 US should grant most favored nation trading status to Cuba.
4 not use women for advertising in products not directly related women
5 impose a 100% death tax.
6 African nations should expel NGOs with religious affiliations.
Semi US should give other countries electoral votes in its presidential elections.
Final legalize duels to the death.
