The Fourth International Conference on Argumentation, Rhetoric, Debate and the Pedagogy of Empowerment, which was opened at the Qatar National Convention Centre (QNCC) on Friday will pro- vide a platform for the Western dele- gations to learn from their Arab counter-parts the art of effective commu- nication with Arab audience.

"The world media dia- mond must pump out the words that can be best achieved through debate. An effective, constructive dialogue between the West and the Arab world is necessary for stand- ing of such each other and help to break away with misgivings on both sides. The Arab voice must be heard and it can happen only when Arab understands their language."

Another participant Vice-Marek Kuszyk from Institute for Culture of Dialogues, Slovenia, said that debate promotes critical think- ing and benefits large number of people in schools, universities and government offices. He said that Arab teachers and scholars are available to participate in the conference, which will bring together the best of the world. "This event, held in Arabic and English is a chance to spread this message loud and clear."

Associate Professor of Communication at Florida Atlantic University, David Costa Williams said, "There is a strong tradition of communication in the Arab world but it is not very much known outside. The current is as a platform to spread it across the world. The conference organized under the Qatar Debate Center aims to use in a way for in-depth discussions, debates and sharing of ideas that will enable more enlightened dis- cussion in the 21st century. It also provides a unique opportunity to include the rapid scholarly and aca- demic advancement of the Arab world personally Qatar Debate and the Qatar Foundation."

The three-day conference will have three themes of Argumentation and Debates and Critical thinking and Pedagogy for discussion.

The workshop aims to build a rapport of respect between the Sudanese government and JEM.

MEMBERS of Emamakkal Kettungal Welfare Association Qatar (EKWA), a Kerala socio-cultural forum in Qatar, held a two-hour orientation program at the Hamad Medical Corporation (HMC) on Friday to make students aware of ABP policies and programmes of association.

The event, which will be held at Tariq Bin Zeyad Secondary School at Sarat Jaddi, will be inaugurated by Abdulhamid Samad, member of legislative assembly (MLA) of Kerala and national secretary of India Union Muslim League (IYML). Renewed social worker Uma Premam from Kerala will be the chief guest on the occasion. An organ beneficiary Puthur Abdul Kadar from the United Arab Emirates will also speak.

He said the forum will also offer financial assistance to patients, who suffer from several diseases back in Kerala. General Secretary of the forum Abdul Amin said, "Fifteen ABP members, including women, have already promised to donate their organs. We believe organ donation is one of the noble human services that one can do for others."

Hamad Medical Corporation, in cooperation with the Supreme Council of Health (SCE), has started a campaign to raise public awareness of the ABP’s first ever bone marrow campaign.

"We have made another important step to get closer to the citizenry, our local customers will now be able to donate and provide organs at any time and location around the country."

The new showroom, located on the first floor of Lagoona Mall, has been designed to cater to local expatriate customers and designed to safeguard the family business, said: "I am very excited to be here today to open our new store concept; it will be another important step to get closer to the citizenry, our local customers will now be able to donate and provide organs at any time and location around the country."

The new showroom, which was opened by Pascal Mouawad, is the first new generation store concept introduced by brothers Fred and Pascal Mouawad.

"Our customers have become our family and we have been excited to have them in our new store. We hope that this new showroom will help us to expand our business and meet the needs of our customers."

The ABP has graduated over (5000) students, 90 per cent of whom were Qataris. As a centre of Qatar Foundation, the Academic Bridge Program offers students twice yearly. The majority of ABP students enroll during the fall semester, whether they be first-time or returning students. During the academic year, students are offered an academic year abroad program. The ABP, through its academic year abroad program, helps students to enrich their academic experience.
